

ANNIE GREENHILL

Annie has been dancing all her life. She started formal ballet training at the age of 5 in Melbourne where she took Royal Academy of Dancing (RAD) ballet exams to at least Intermediate. After some years living and working in Covent Garden where she took classes in all sorts of dance, she moved to Zurich where she studied ballet at the opera house ballet school, and drama with the Zurich Players. She later settled in Hobart for work where she commenced classes at Mischa Slavensky ballet school making lifelong friends with Shirley and Penny which led into doing classes and performing with the local company, The Dance Workshop. Annie attended a regular advanced adult ballet class at The Hobart Dance Academy from 2003 to 2015.

Annie is one of the founding members of MADE (2005) and has performed in all of MADE's major works since then. She was on the board of MADE for some time in the early days. Annie continues to be very committed and deeply caring about MADE's future. The community of MADE has always been there in the dark or difficult times of life.
