

FINLEY GORRINGE

Finley Gorringe is a 25 year old parkour artist from Tasmania who has returned home after seven years in the UK.

He is a qualified gymnastics and parkour coach who has worked and performed extensively around the UK at festivals, shopping centres and private events.

Drawn to parkour for its blend of danger, creativity, and challenge, he values how it builds mental resilience and problem-solving skills.

He is now training to become a stuntman, a pursuit that perfectly matches his love for high-impact, adrenaline-fueled performance. Off the stage, his days are filled with surfing, skating, fire-spinning, and, of course, plenty of parkour practice.
