

MATT DANIELS

A digital artist and creative technologist with a passion for blending art and technology to craft captivating, interactive experiences. Matt transforms cutting-edge technologies into evocative installations, generative artworks, and immersive environments. Driven by curiosity about the intersections of technology, creativity, and human experience, Matt continues to create works that inspire connection, wonder, and reflection.